

!!! BOOK YOUR HOTEL NOW !!!

Hotel Rooms have been secured for DACOF 2018

Greetings DACOF 2018 Teams, Attendees, Vendors and Spectators,

We listened to your survey responses and have added an additional hotel to our list. We've added the Seralago Hotel & Suites which is offering the same group rates as the Ramada Kissimmee Downtown and the La Quinta Consulate Drive. DACOF Group rates are available for the dates of Thursday, June 28 through check out Sunday, July 1, and can be extended up to three days prior or three days post our event.

Make sure you book your room as part of the "DACOF Group" so you get the discounted group rate, are not charged Pet/Resort Fees, and so DACOF gets proper recognition for the booking. (Special Group Rates are offered based upon our participation which helps us negotiate rates in following years.)

Each DACOF Member desiring lodging is responsible for booking their own room and paying all fees. The hotels have agreed to waive their dog fee but will charge you if there is any room damage. We've expressed that our DACOF Members are all responsible dog owners and that our dogs are well mannered and behaved!!!

Please remember if you have a great stay at the hotel and received good customer service, please go to <https://www.tripadvisor.com> and give them an excellent review. However, if you have a complaint, please express it with the Hotel Manager allowing them the ability to address the issue. Posting negative comments or reviews to any social media or online platform before providing Hotel Management the opportunity to remedy issues can reflect poorly on our Organization making it very difficult to negotiate with these establishments in subsequent years.*

Last but not least, although this should go without saying,
PLEASE BE SURE TO CLEAN UP AFTER OUR DOGS!!!

Please book your rooms early, if you have any questions please email me at:
taull@bellsouth.net

Best Regards,
Tamara Aull
